Empowering Education Through Thought Leadership & Publishing

Sugandhini Publications Pvt. Ltd. is a newly established Bengaluru-based publishing house incorporated in April 2025.

With over 2 decades of expertise in field of education we have come up with values-based content, our focus lies in creating high-quality educational content, aligned with academic goals, NEP 2020 standards, and regional relevance - in both English and vernacular mediums.

We extend beyond print with collaboration.

At Sugandhini Publications, we are actively expanding beyond traditional print by developing interactive e-modules, digital assessments, and customized school-branded book editions. Additionally, we aim to empower educators through workshops and webinars, offering practical tools, updated teaching strategies, and ongoing professional development to enhance classroom impact.
